* A woman and three children who spent some time in Dingle were admitted to Linsabee Union, within the time specified; she was not in charge of a removing officer, and no warrant was sent here; she said, however, that she was removed under a warrant, and that an officer came with her to Waterford, and left her there. There was another case where a warrant was issued, dated 21st December 1879; but the party did not arrive for some days subsequently.
